THE Shenandoah

1941

Jim Duke

THE 1941 SHENANDOAH

As Time continues his ceaseless march, may the 1941 "Shenandoah" assist you in reliving the happiest, most carefree moments of your life.

IN THE LANGUAGE OF hours

TIME has passed swiftly, silently in its flight, leaving behind four years of laughter, achievement, activity. Time has evolved a poised, gay senior from the frightened freshman who first trod the now familiar halls of our Shenandoah High School.

Somehow, our classes, instructors, and the school itself have become an integral part of our daily lives; and forever with us dwells the tantalizing wonder, "What will happen tomorrow?"

The ideals and dreams of a brave new generation live within us. With the kindly aid of time, in four short years we have developed from childhood into young womanhood and manhood.

Time has spoken to us, has left the imprint of experience and knowledge upon us. We have learned to treasure time, wherein lies the potentiality of enlightened minds and souls.

Patsy Maddex

TO Miss Edith Stanley, whose sympathetic understanding and friendly impartiality have aided each of us to meet his problems, we, the class of 1941, dedicate our annual.

Her wisdom has proved a constant source of encouragement, her advice has settled many of our difficulties, and, above all, she has exemplified all the characteristics of noble womanhood.

The Student Council, under the supervision of Principal Bernard V. Guernsey, discusses the problems and questions of the student body.

Each class chooses one boy and girl who may represent the student body and its questions.

The meetings of the council tend to secure co-operation between the student body and the teachers.

The S. H. S. Student Council, besides its duties as student governing body, sponsors, plans and arranges the all-school dances, which are usually held once during each six-weeks period. The major social event they sponsor is the all-school dance following the Junior-Senior banquet in the spring.

The membership of 1940-41 includes John Weaver and Mona Alexander, seniors; J. C. Andrews and Judith Clovis, Juniors; Byron Braymen and Maxine Nixson, sophomores; Bob Brown and Maxine Hailey, freshmen.

Representative Seniors

In choosing the representative boy and girl of the senior class, the seniors perform one of the most difficult tasks of the year.

To be chosen a representative senior is one of the greatest honors a student can receive, for those chosen have excelled in the three fields of scholarship, leadership, and character.

Outstanding in scholarship, Mona Alexander was elected to the Torch and Scroll when she was a junior, an honor accorded only three; she has also been on the honor roll during her four years in high school. Her character is demonstrated by the fact that she was awarded the D. A. R. Citizenship award this year, and was chosen to represent the D. A. R. of Page County. Her leadership can be shown in many ways. She has been active in the Girl Reserves for four years and was elected president in her senior year. She is Worthy Advisor of the Order of Rainbow Girls. The Thespian Society has found Mona an active member for the past two years. She is a member of the annual staff, and was elected to the student council during her senior year.

A prominent high school leader, Boy Frame played football and basketball for four years, during which time he won many honors. He is president of the "S" Club, Hi-Y, and Torch and Scroll, which also demonstrates his scholarship. Boy's scholarship is also proved by the fact that he has always been on the honor roll. His character was so outstanding that he was one of the three juniors chosen to go to Boy's State last year. The Shen-Hi-Can and Annual staffs have found Boy a loyal worker. During his sophomore and junior years, he used another of his talents, and was in the glee club. Boy is also a member of the Quill and Scroll. The climax of his high school career came when he was awarded the Sportsmanship Plaque for outstanding sportsmanship in football by the Evening Sentinel.

Time and the class of '41 have been rehearsing—yes, rehearsing the play "Life", the greatest drama in history.

Since that memorable day four years ago when Forty-One—a timid, ambitious freshman, bubbling over with enthusiasm—entered high school, rehearsals have been conducted daily. In all classes and extra-curricular activities, the class sponsors and others of the faculty have carefully coached and prompted him. Success and glory for Shenandoah High, as well as for himself, has been his aim these four fleeting years.

Many of his football, basketball, track, and tennis stars upheld all ideals of sportsmanship and were enthusiastically admitted to the "S" Club. Because he was music minded, he was represented in the glee clubs, chorus, band, and orchestra.

Outstanding work in Shenandoah High's two journalistic ventures, "The Shen-Hi-Can" and the annual, rated berths in the Quill and Scroll Society for a number of his members.

Hi-Y and Girl Reserves assisted him in molding desirable characters.

Numbers of his ranks became affiliated with the National Thespian Society after displaying exceptional dramatic ability in "Once There Was A Princess", "The Nut Farm", Ladies of the Jury", "Young April", and many one-acts.

Forty One's mentality was exceptionally high. Sixteen of his twenty honor students were elected to the National Honor Society, The Torch and Scroll.

His big brother—the class of forty—was his banquet guest when "Gone With the Wind" swept the nation.

It is with anxiety—yet deep regret—that he awaits the banquet, baccalaureate, and commencement—he, of forty one!

The stage is set. Soon, the curtain will rise and the class of '41, along with '40 and the rest, will be playing an important roll in "Life".

●

We, the class of '42 proudly announce another successful and memorable year at dear old S. H. S. under the supervision of our capable sponsors, Miss Muriel Keenan, Mr. Victor Mahood, and Miss Eleanor Walker.

The class play, "Fly Away Home," the preparation of the Junior-Senior Banquet, and the class party were the highlights of the year.

Our class was very well represented in athletics. Four boys received letters. They are Junior Ingrim, Bob Smith, Scott Willson and Bob Book. Junior Ingrim now has three letters, two of which were earned in his sophomore year.

Many students were active on the Shen-Hi-Can and Annual staffs. Bob Kenworthy was Junior Assistant Editor of the Shen-Hi-Can and Goodson Lee was Exchange Editor.

The class proved to be quite musically inclined in both vocal and instrumental music, with thirty-eight juniors in Mixed Chorus, sixteen members in orchestra, and seventeen in band. Several are also members of smaller instrumental and vocal groups.

Richard Walters, Harry Bredensteiner, Ben Brown, Norman Patty, Duane Bredensteiner, Bob Kenworthy, Alice Gail Pitner, Richard Ruth, Thomas Sawyer, Kay Rotton, Juanita Brisco, Helen Richey, Joan Clovis, Mary Brush, Evelyn Upp, Bob Gardner, Shirley Smith, Carole Kraschel, Norma Gardner, Jeanne Anderson, and Bob Zack have all experienced their moment of stage glory. Out of this group Joan and Judith Clovis, Helen Richey, Bob Kenworthy, Kay Rotton, Ben Brown, Norma Gardner and Alice Gail Pitner met the requirements for the National Thespian Society.

We are justifiably proud of our past achievements and are hoping for a brighter future——we, the class of '42.

——Alice Gail Pitner

One hundred and twenty-six Sophomores entered the Shenandoah High School last September. This popular and active class was well represented in the Glee Clubs, Band, Orchestra, Girl Reserves, Shen-Hi-Can, athletics, and the various plays.

Forty-seven sophomores participated in the Glee Clubs and Choruses. Lloyd Spargur, first trumpeter, was elected president of the band.

In the Essay Contest sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce of Shenandoah, and the American Magazine, David Archie won the second prize, an award of two dollars.

The Verse Speaking Choir started by Miss May Virden was again a popular activity. Two one-act plays, "Three's a Crowd" and "Are We Dressing?" were presented during the course of the year as chapel programs. Shirley Bloom, Bill Bonwell, Betty Frye, Jack Haldeman, and Gage Parker made up the cast of "Three's a Crowd." Players in "Are We Dressing?" were Darrell Fienup, Rosalie Stirlen, Gordon Adams, Ruth Yost, Glen Douthitt, Mary Kay Roscoe, Ewing Bute, and Maxine Nixson. Orion Huffer, Jim Longman, and Duane Pullen are the Sophomores who played in "Sweet 16." David Archie and Herman Barron carried important roles in the Thespian play "Ladies of the Jury."

Ten Sophomores reported for Football, and nine for Basketball. Two boys, Estel Madison and G. W. Lawson, rated letters in athletics.

The highlights of the school year were the picnic and the class party. At the class party in February, square dancing was enjoyed. The Melody Rangers from K M A furnished the music.

Miss Catherine White and Mr. Wilbert Pyner are class sponsors.

The doors of Shenandoah High School opened this year to the smallest freshman class in ten years, 114 pupils. 101 registered for the second semester.

Although small, the class was well represented in all music organizations with forty-three in the Glee Club, eight in band, and four in orchestra.

Six Freshmen, Martha Jeane Douglas, Betty Peterson, Maxine Hailey, Phyllis McFarland, Rosemary Gleason, and Marie Bertram went out for Shen-Hi-Can staff. Colleen Adams and Robert Cunningham assisted in the preparation of the Annual.

In the Essay Contest sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce of Shenandoah and by the American Magazine, Norman Spencer's theme on "What Americanism Means to Me," won the first prize of three dollars. Phyllis Ann McFarland and Georgene Teachout received Honorable Mention in this same contest. The Freshman class is proud to claim these honors.

A Choral Reading class of twenty girls was organized under the direction of Miss May Virden.

A class party and several matinee dances rounded out the year's social events. More freshmen than upper-classmen attended the all-school dances. The class picnic in May closed an eventful and worthwhile year.

The freshmen were quite enthusiastic about athletics. Twelve boys reported for Basketball and twenty for Mr. Martin's Pony Squad of football.

Freshman Class sponsors are Miss Mabel Hunter, Miss Inez Gwynn, and Mr. Merrill Langfitt.

S Club

The goal of every boy in Shenandoah High School who goes out for athletics is to become a member of the "S" Club. It is not an easy task and everyone who has become a member well merits a word of commendation for his accomplishment.

To get a letter in football or basketball, a boy must get in half the total number of quarters. In track he must receive ten points at track meets. A provision is made that if a boy has been out for a sport for four years or if he is hurt, he shall receive a letter also.

The social life of the club consists of an initiation which is well-known for its unpleasant requirements. Besides this, there is a picnic in the spring which all the members and their girl friends attend. Mr. Moore is the sponsor of the club.

BERNARD PAGE

Shenandoah High School athletics are supervised by Raymond Moore, head coach, Bernie Page and Vic Mahood, assistant coaches, and Principal Bernard V. Guernsey, general supervisor.

Mr. Moore attended high school at Nemaha and Stella, Nebraska, graduating from Stella. He attended Peru State Teachers College where he was a star athlete. Before coming to Shenandoah, he was head coach at Plainview, Nebraska. Besides directing the athletics of high school, Mr. Moore instructs civics and economics students.

Mr. Page was graduated from high school at Newton, Iowa. He attended the University of Iowa, where he was a star halfback on Iowa's football team. Before coming to Shenandoah, Mr. Page was head coach at Chariton, Iowa. He teaches general science and physiology.

Mr. Mahood is a graduate of Savannah, Missouri, high school, where he won a medal during his junior year for being the best all-round athlete in the high school. He attended college at the Northwest Missouri State Teachers College at Maryville, where he was captain of the second all-state team during his junior year. Mr. Mahood directs manual training.

To these men the students of Shenandoah High School are deeply grateful for the most complete and colorful year of sports.

Another successful season has been chalked up by the fighting Mustangs of S. H. S. Pre-season ratings placed the Mustangs fourth or possibly fifth in the Hawkeye Six Conference, but surpassing all expectations they won it with five straight victories. Of total games played, Shenandoah won six, lost two, and tied one. This extends the Mustang's record of the past five years to thirty-nine wins, five defeats, and three ties.

With only two regulars of last year's winning team in the line-up, the Mustangs dropped the opener to Thomas Jefferson of Council Bluffs, 13 to 6.

The first conference game of the season was played the following week. Showing much improvement over the first week, the Mustangs started defense of the coveted Hawkeye Six title with a 13 to 0 win over Creston.

Shenandoah's next opponent was Glenwood. In spite of a 0 to 0 tie the Glenwood Rams considered the game a moral victory.

After the setback by Glenwood the Mustangs began to accomplish things. It was an underdog Mustang team that took the field against the Clarinda Cardinals. At the end of the first half it looked as if the game was running true to form with the score 18 to 6 against Shenandoah. Then in the second half that famous Mustang fighting spirit surged forth. Fighting like mad, the Mustangs pushed over two more touchdowns and an extra point to win 19 to 18. This game will go down in local football history as one of the most exciting and breath-taking ever played in Southwest Iowa.

Shenandoah's next conference foe, Villisca, proved easier to conquer, but they marked themselves as a worthy opponent. The score sheet showed Shenandoah 19, Villisca 7.

The following week was parent's night and the visiting team was Hamburg. Every boy on the "A" squad saw action as the Mustangs piled up the biggest yardage of the season, winning 25 to 7.

Following the two comparatively easy games with Villisca and Hamburg came the crucial Hawkeye Six conference test with Atlantic. Again the Mustangs were the underdogs by two touchdowns. But it seems the Mustangs like to be the underdogs, for on this night the Shenandoah forwards completely outfought and out-played the much larger Trojan line. When the smoke of battle had cleared, the Mustangs were still undefeated in the conference by winning a glorious 12 to 0 victory.

Next week a run-back of a Shenandoah punt gave Abraham Lincoln of Council Bluffs a 6 to 0 victory over Shenandoah. Although it was a defeat, the Mustangs gave the Lynx all the scrap and fight they could handle.

All season Shenandoah and their next opponent, Red Oak, had been preparing for their annual Armistice day clash. Both teams were undefeated in conference play, and the Tigers had their best team in years. Red Oak has been practically starved for a victory over Shenandoah. Only twice in Shenandoah-Red Oak football history has Red Oak beaten Shenandoah. The last time a Red Oak team came out on top over the Mustangs was in 1928. A blizzard forced the game to be postponed till a later date, but none of the spirit and enthusiasm of the two schools was diminished a bit. Finally the postponed date arrived and the two teams were keyed for action. It was below freezing, and there was two inches of snow on the ground as two great teams battled neck and neck for a victory that meant so much to both. Jimmy Clark, diminutive Shenandoah back, saved the day for the Mustangs when he scampered 60 yards with a Red Oak punt for a 6 to 0 Shenandoah victory.

Now, for the second straight year and for the fifth time in the eleven years that the Hawkeye Six has been organized, the Mustangs from Shenandoah have reigned as champions.

SCHEDULE

The Mustangs opened the 1940-41 season December 10 by brilliantly defeating Coach Curtis Frey's Sidney Cowboys, 59 to 15. The Mustangs were impressive, exhibiting smooth floor work and accurate shooting.

In the first Hawkeye-Six Conference battle, Red Oak fell to the short end of a 34 to 24 score. The game was close until the final quarter in which the Mustangs dominated the court.

One of the classics of the year took place on the local court December 17 when two excellent teams, namely Shenandoah and Bedford, fought a point-making battle to the finish. Bedford nosed out the Mustangs 49 to 43.

At Atlantic December 20, good teamwork combined with expert shooting netted the Mustangs a 40 to 22 victory over a determined Atlantic quintet.

After Christmas vacation Coach Moore's proteges defeated Farragut 33 to 24. Both teams had some difficulty in finding the hoop. However, Shenandoah held a substantial lead throughout the game.

In one of the fastest games ever staged on the Armory court, the Mustangs totaled 49 points to Creston's 41, this ending a three-year winning streak for Creston in Hawkeye-Six competition. The entire Mustang team turned in a beautiful performance with Williams and Weaver collecting 20 and 14 points respectively to lead the offense.

Tarkio invaded the local court on January 14 and was limited to a pair of field goals. The final score was 34 to 11.

At Clarinda the Mustangs lost a heart-breaker by one point. The Cardinals delayed the Mustang's offense and the score was deadlocked eight times. A Clarinda substitute converted a free throw which came to be the deciding factor in the game. The final score read Clarinda 27, Shenandoah 26.

Basketball Squad

Our Record

Villisca received a setback at the hands of the Mustangs by a score of 24 to 46. Eager to avenge their one-point defeat at Clarinda, Shenandoah was determined to stop the Villiscans and did so. The Montgomery County lads tried to stop the onslaught, but to no avail. Rex Williams paced the Mustangs with nineteen points.

With Don Adams scoring 23 points for the Mustangs, they again powerfully subdued Red Oak on the Tiger court, by a score of 52 to 44.

In the second encounter of the two clubs, the local boys defeated Atlantic 41 to 36. The game was close all the way.

On the Armory maples, Shenandoah outscored Glenwood 40 to 32 in a non-conference battle. The game was hard fought and substitutions were frequent.

At Creston on February 7, the Mustangs seemingly couldn't get going until it was too late and consequently were defeated 43 to 33. This loss wrested the Hawkeye Six title, which they had held up until this game, from Shenandoah.

The Mustangs avenged their mid-season loss to Clarinda by defeating the Cardinals 38 to 28 on February 14. Both clubs displayed a powerful defense but Shenandoah edged them for offensive honors.

At Villisca February 21, the Mustangs encountered a determined club and won a close game, 38 to 36. In the closing seconds John Weaver dropped a neat one-hander through the meshes and saved the day.

Using a fast break to its greatest advantage, the Mustangs downed Nebraska City the following Tuesday in a non-conference game. The reserves saw considerable action in this game and the final score read Shenadoah 44, Nebraska City 24.

At Galva, Iowa, the Shenandoahans encountered stiff opposition in the form of Holstein, a small town with a big team. Holstein, a state final team last year, crushed the Mustangs 49 to 30.

This year's basketball team featured one of the finest in recent Mustang history. Magnificent floor work was turned in by Nixson and Nesmith while Williams, Adams, and Weaver took care of the offensive work. Williams finished third in Hawkeye Six scoring. The reserves were frequently called upon, and were entirely efficient. Competition was unusually keen in conference play this year and much credit is due the team for their many fine performances.

Netsters

Coach Robert McMullen's tennis team kept a clean slate this fall by winning the Hawkeye Six title for the third consecutive season, winning both singles and doubles.

Jim Nixson succeeded Wayne Anderson in capturing the singles crown by defeating Pierson of Creston 6-1, 6-1, and then by defeating his own teammate, Keith Bloom, in a hard-fought, three-set match 2-6, 6-4, 6-3. Bloom disposed of Keesler of Creston 6-2, 6-2, in his march to the finals.

Gene Nesmith and John Weaver are the new doubles kings. Drawing a bye in the first round, they advanced to the finals and easily tripped Jones and Bock of Creston, 6-0, 6-1.

Shenandoah, Creston, and Atlantic were the only three of the Hawkeye Six schools competing in the tournament.

In the spring of '40, Shenandoah's Wayne Anderson won the State Singles title by defeating his cousin, Keith Bloom. Jim Nixson and Gene Nesmith advanced to the semi-finals in the doubles.

Much credit is given to Coach McMullen for his team's enviable record of taking a team to the state tournament and winning the Hawkeye Six title for three consecutive years.

1940 Track

When the track season rolled around in the spring of '40 the Mustangs had only two lettermen back.

At the first of the season, Shenandoah was represented at several dual meets at which the Mustangs got some very valuable experience. These meets were held at Sidney, Clarinda, and Red Oak. The Mustangs were victorious in all three meets.

Shenandoah copped fourth place in the Elliott meet, getting 24 points, with the winner getting 31 points. Hillman won first in the javelin throw, throwing 137 feet and 3 inches. Adams and Purcell tied for first place in the high jump, going over 5 feet and 8 inches.

At the Clarinda Relays, the local boys had tough luck and piled up only 7 and one-half points.

In the Hawkeye Six Track Meet in May the Mustangs placed fourth. Clarinda nosed the Mustangs out of third place with a score of 26 to our 25 and one-half. Adams won the only first place by jumping 5 feet and 7 inches. This was the last meet for the Mustangs.

The marching band was very active last fall, playing and maneuvering for football games and city activities.

Majorettes were added to the band this year. It is the first time the marching band has had drum majorettes. They were: Norma Gardner, Alice Gail Pitner, Naomi Foster, and Dorothy King.

Two bell lyres were also a new attraction added to the band.

The concert band, consisting of 50 members, has played a number of times this year. Some of the most popular selections played were: In a monastry Garden, by Albert W. Ketelbey; Stars and Stripes Forever, Sousa; Intermezzo, S. Coleridge-Taylor; God Bless America, Irving Berlin; Eroica (Overture), Joseph Skornicka; Flirtations (Trio for three cornets), Herbert L. Clarke; Light Cavalry, F. Von Suppe; and The Calif of Bagdad (Overture) by A. Boieldieu.

A pep band, selected from the members of the marching band by Mr. Vocelka, played at all home basket ball games.

Officers of the band are Lloyd Spargur, President; Richard Walter, Vice-President; and Jean Maher, Secretary.

A Capella Choir

This year the activities undertaken by the Shenandoah High School A Capella Choir of 65 voices, under the direction of Mr. Vance E. Leininger, included the Christmas Chapel, a Christmas Concert on Sunday afternoon, December 15, a spring concert, and a contata now being planned.

The Christmas concert was divided into three divisions: Anthems in the Classic style, anthems from Russia, and contemporary American anthems. A few of the songs included in this program were: "Gloria in Excelsis Deo," by Bach; "Only Begotten Son," by Gretschaninoff; "Today There is Ringing," and "Welcome," by Christiansen.

Now in preparation for a spring concert many other selections have been added. Among them are "Lost In the Night," by Christiansen, "Nunc Dimittus," by Gretschaninoff, and "Tom Big Bee River," by Cain.

The group is looking forward to a trip sometime in the latter part of the school year. Choir members have been raising money to finance the trip by selling refreshments at basketball and football games.

This year the Shenandoah High School Orchestra owed its success to the capable direction of Mr. Ernest Vocelka.

A new idea which was initiated this year was the opening of all the programs with "God Bless America," by Irving Berlin and closing with our national anthem "The Star Spangled Banner." A few of the numbers in the orchestra's repetoire were "Finale from 5th Symphony" by L. von Beethoven, "Introduction to Act III, Lohengrin" by Richard Wagner; "Waltz" from ballet "Dornroschehn" by Tschaikowsky; "Nocturne" from "Midsummers Night's Dream" by Mendelssohn; "March Hongroise" from "Damnation of Faust" by Berlioz; and "March Fantastique," prelude from "Suite L'Arlesienne" by Bizet.

This year Nadine Thomas played a cello solo, "Liebestraum" by Liszt, with orchestra accompaniment. Several others were featured with the orchestra.

As an added attraction, the girls wore formals this year.

Officers of the orchestra are: President, Margery Whitehill; Vice-President, Judith Clovis; Secretary-Treasurer, Raymond Huffer; Librarian, Joan Clovis; and Assistant Librarian, Phyllis Bass.

There are 33 boys in Boys First Glee Club, 10 of whom are seniors, 12 juniors, and 11 sophomores.

All of these boys are also in First or Second Mixed Chorus, the majority being in First Chorus. They sing both A Capella and accompanied songs taken from standard literature for male chorus.

Under Mr. Vance Leininger's direction, the group interpreted songs of varied nature. Included in their repertoire were "Spanish Gold," by Fisher, and "The Shadow March," by Noble Cain, which were sung as part of a program by the vocal department in March.

The First Girls' Glee Club is composed largely of Senior and Junior girls, with a few Sophomores.

This organization provided a sizeable portion of the spring concert by the vocal department when "A Prayer," by Gluck, "My Love Dwelt In a Northern Land," by Elgar, "The Storm Song" and "A Grecian Landscape", both by Cyril Jenkins, were performed.

Most of the girls are also in the First Chorus. The remainder of the girls receive their experience in the second Chorus.

Much of the rehearsal time in Freshman Chorus is devoted to vocal exercises with the idea of the development of good choral tone predominant. Some of the music sung was written in four parts, some of it in three parts. Part of the time the girls in the chorus practiced as a separate unit, which was also true of the boys. These rehearsals were devoted not only to music arranged for girls alone, or boys alone, but were also used as sectional rehearsals preparatory to rehearsals of the entire chorus. Many of these voices have matured to the extent that they will be able to take assigned places in the varsity choral organizations next year.

The National Thespian Society is the national dramatic honor society for high schools. The aim of this society is "to create a spirit of active and intelligent interest in dramatics among boys and girls of secondary schools." To qualify for membership in this organization, a student must meet standards set up by the national society. He must have done outstanding, efficient work in some phase of the dramatic department, either on the production staff or in the cast.

When school opened last autumn, the local club, the James Esden Troupe, Number 133, boasted a membership of thirteen, Mona Alexander, Ben Brown, Ramon Crouch, Dick Dearmont, Marjorie Griffith, Bob Higgins, Elmarie Holmes, Raymond Huffer, Jean King, Patsy Maddex, Charlotte Teachout, Eileen Thomas, and Robert Tyson. Of this group, Dick Dearmont was chosen president, Ben Brown, vice president; and Raymond Huffer, secretary.

Four Juniors, Joan Clovis, Judith Clovis, Bob Kenworthy, and Helen Richey, were admitted to the ranks during the first semester.

Soon after the annual production, "Ladies of the Jury," six students, Kay Rotton, Betty Braley, Mary Win Nye, Jerry Teachout, Norma Gardner, and Alice Gail Pitner were initiated into the organization.

Miss May Virden is sponsor of this society.

National Thespians

Drama in SHS

The James Esden Troupe, No. 133, of the National Thespian Society of Shenandoah High School presented "Ladies of the Jury," under the direction of Miss May Virden. Jean King, Judith Clovis, Alice Gail Pitner, Kay Rotton, Elmarie Holmes, and Evelyn Upp were the "ladies of the jury." "Gentlemen of the jury" were Bob Tyson, Ben Brown, Herman Barron, Raymond Huffer, Bob Higgins, Jerry Teachout, and Bob Pinckney. Others who gave splendid performances were Harry Bredensteiner, Duane Bredensteiner, Dick Dearmont, David Archie, Mary Win Nye, Betty Braley, Norma Gardner, Ramon Crouch, Jay Henshaw, Orion Huffer, Jim Longman, and Ewing Bute.

"Fly Away Home" was a three-act comedy chosen for the Junior Class of Shenandoah High School. The cast, including Norman Patty, Joan Clovis, John Schiebenberger, Judy Clovis, Kay Rotton, Norma Gardner, Bob Gardner, Jeanne Anderson, Bob Kenworthy, Helen Richey, and Mary Brush, gave a fine performance.

Plays that were presented as chapel programs were Eether or Eyether," "Three's a Crowd", and at the end of the year, two more productions, a senior and a junior one-act play.

Appearing in "Eether or Eyether" were Hubert Cline, Mary Win Nye, Donald Peterson, Jetta Mae Hickey, Marjorie J. Holmes, Jerry Teachout, Ruth Carlson, and Bob Pinckney.

Bill Bonwell, Shirley Bloom, Jack Haldeman, Gage Parker, and Betty Frye made up the cast for the sophomore play "Three's a crowd."

On March 18, four one-act plays were presented at an evening performance for the public. Two of these plays, "Eether or Eyether" and "Three's a Crowd," had been previously presented as a chapel program. The other two one-act plays given were "Are We Dressing?" and "Sweet 16."

The cast of "Are We Dressing?" included Darrell Fienup, Rosalie Stirlen, Gordon Adams, Ruth Yost, Glen Douthitt, Mary Kay Roscoe, Ewing Bute, and Maxine Nixson.

Players in "Sweet 16" were: Dorothy Clark, Carole Kraschel, Phyllis Loudon, Marjorie Holmes, Naomi Foster, Dorothy King, Katherine Braymen, Benetta Mitchell, Orion Huffer, Jean Maher, Duane Pullen, Eloise Lyden, Jim Longman, Polly Travis, Nadine Thomas, Betty Lynn, Dorothy Wolford, Junior Eyres, Carl Swanson, Phyllis Bass.

The Radio City Chapter of the Future Farmers of America was organized four years ago to enable many of the boys of Shenandoah High School, through Vocational Agriculture, to be trained in the modern techniques of farming.

This year there were 42 enrolled in the Future Farmer organization. Among some of the outstanding members were Ivan Bohrer, who rated excellent in the extemporaneous speaking contest at the South West District F. F. A. meeting at Manning, Iowa; Le Roy Ayres, Bert Lorimor, W. T. Lorimor, and Bob Higgins, who, working as a team, rated excellent in the Parlimentary Proceedure contest, and J. R. King who received first place in Poultry judging at the Dairy Cattle Congress contest. Together J. R. and Donald Peterson placed fifth judging poultry as a team there.

The entire club collaborated with the Page County Farm Bureau in testing corn on a plot of ground. This proved to be quite a successful and profitable adventure.

During the year a night school was held weekly at the Junior High Building, for the defined purpose of acquainting the farmers of the surrounding country with the more recent trends in agriculture. The F. F. A. boys aided in making this school a success.

The boys organized a kittenball team and later in the year a basketball team. Many of the boys made a camping trip to Lake Aquabi, near Indianola, last summer. This is an annual affair.

The officers of this year's club are: President, Donald Peterson; Vice president, Bob Higgins; Secretary, Bert Lorimor; Treasurer, Donald Rolf; Reporter, Bob Beach, and Sponsor, Merrill Langfitt.

In March the annual F. F. A. Father-Son Banquet was held with about four hundred attending.

Future Farmers

Homemakers

This year the vocational homemaking classes have one hundred members. An advanced third year class has been organized this year for those girls desiring extra work.

During the past year the course of studies included phases of personal grooming, hospitality, and art principles, as applied to dressing, clothing construction, and buying of clothes. Meal planning and food preparation, child development, art principles in the home, and buying of foods were also studied.

The homemaking classes were guests of the Red Oak homemaking classes at an all-day High School Girls' Homemaking Conference at Red Oak, in September.

During the past year, the various homemaking classes have entertained the members' mothers, and their friends at several teas and style shows. The girls modeled clothing made in their classes.

Through the splendid co-operation of the staff members, the fellow students, faculty, and businessmen, under the direction of Mrs. Warin and Miss Kathryn Young, commercial instructors, the task of preparing the 1941 annual has been completed. The staff has attempted to make this annual a record of both the serious and humorous side of SHS life during the school year of 1940-1941.

We hope that this yearbook will keep alive the spirit and loyalty of Shenandoah High School, and bring an account of interesting happenings to be remembered.

The editor-in-chief, Raymond Huffer, was capably assisted by Marjorie J. Holmes, assistant editor, and Dick Dearmont, business manager.

The Shenandoah

Shen-Hi-Can

The purpose of the Shen-Hi- Can is to give the public all news concerning high school activities. A secondary aim is to furnish entertainment for the students through feature articles.

Pasty Maddex, editor-in-chief, was capably assisted by Marjorie Griffith and Raymond Huffer, senior assistant editors, Bob Kenworthy, Junior assistant editor, and Robert Tyson, sports editor. The editors have been assisted by a staff of reporters numbering approximately forty. Places on the staff are open to all pupils who try out and succeed in meeting the staff qualifications.

Patsy set an example for her staff by winning an editorial-writing contest at the State Journalism Convention held at Iowa City last fall. She received a gold cup.

Many individuals on the staff profit by gaining some journalistic experience.

The group is supervised by Miss Edith Stanley.

The Girl Reserves, a junior branch of the Y. M. C. A., throughout the entire year, plan their program with the purpose of developing the members to be worthwhile and useful citizens.

This year, under the supervision of a new advisor, Miss Marie Jones, they have carried out many worthwhile activities. At Christmas time they took plants to shut-ins and presents to the County Farm at Clarinda.

The G. R. Clubroom has been furnished with new furniture this year.

On Lincoln's Birthday, the Girl Reserves sponsored the movie, "Abe Lincoln in Illinois," at the Mayfair Theatre. This was well attended by the entire student body.

On February 22, a large number of girls attended the spring conference at Creston, Iowa. At this meeting, Joan Clovis was elected Treasurer of the Southwest Iowa District Girl Reserves.

TOP ROW—Lyden, Edwards, Braley, Pace, Huffer, Frame, Dearmont, Tyson, Smith, Richey, Miss Stanley.

Quill and Scroll

The Quill and Scoll society is an honorary scholastic fraternity for high school journalists. The purpose of the organization is to encourage and reward individual achievement in the field of journalism.

To qualify for membership, a student must be in the upper third of his class scholastically, must be a junior or senior, must have done superior work in some phase of journalistic endeavor, must be recommended by the advisor, and must be approved by the national secretary.

Miss Edith Stanley is faculty advisor; Patsy Maddex, president; John Gottsch, vice president; Jean King, secretary; and Hubert Cline, treasurer.

FIRST ROW—LaFollette, Alexander, Adams, Cline, Gottsch, Greene, Tyson, Maddex.

Torch and Scroll is the local chapter of the National Honor Society. To be eligible for membership in this group, one must achieve these four principles: Scholarship, leadership, character, and service. Members are selected by the vote of the faculty members.

All past members are included in the alumni group which have a banquet each summer.

The officers for the year 1940-41 are Boy Frame, president, and Mona Alexander, secretary. Miss Muriel Keenan is the chapter sponsor.

Members of the chapter are Boy Frame, Robert Tyson, and Mona Alexander, who were initiated in their junior year, and Patsy Maddex, Raymond Huffer, Jean King, Donald Adams, Marvin Greene, Maurice La Follette, Margery Whitehill, Elmarie Holmes, Marjorie Griffith, Hubert Cline, John Gottsch, Eileen Thomas, and Paul Rodgers, who were initiated during their senior year.

THIRD ROW—Hickey, Thomason, Sickler, Gilbert.
FOURTH ROW—Swanson, M. Thomas, Maddex, Bradshaw.

The Commercial Club, which was composed of the members of the advanced Shorthand and Typing classes, met once a month. Mrs. Warin was sponsor of this club. The officers of the Commercial Club were: President, Ruth Warner; Vice-President, Margery Whitehill; Secretary-Treasurer, Doris Swanson. Near the end of the first semester Margery Whitehill was elected president of the club, succeeding Ruth Warner who became an employee at the Security Trust and Savings Bank.

The purpose of this club was to prepare its members to take their places in business and to give them a better understanding of the business world and its habits.

Again this year the Commercial Club sponsored White Christmas. The gifts given by the school enabled many of the poor to obtain gifts. Each member of the club made a White Christmas poster to be placed in the halls.

In January the Commercial Club sponsored a Doughnut sale. The purpose of the sale was to buy Typing pins for those in the advanced Typing Class who are typing at the rate of sixty words or more with less than five errors on a ten-minute speed test.

At one of the meetings, the girls wrote and discussed letters of application, the purpose being to know how to write a letter of application properly.
